GATHERING WORDS:

Liturgist – Dave Corby

One: Children of God, we gather as people who have received new life in Jesus Christ.

Many: We come to set our minds on Christ, who surrounds us in love.

One: The world tries to distract us with anxious rumors, worrisome lies, and misleading half-truths.

Many: We come to set our minds on Christ, who surrounds us in love.

One: In this place, we gather to remind, remember, and renew our commitment to dwell in the love of Christ.

Many: We come to set our minds on Christ, who surrounds us in love.

One: Children of God, come! Let us worship God, who clothes us in new life and renews us in grace.

Many: Come, let us worship as we set our minds on Christ, who surrounds us in love.

OPENING HYMN: (all singing)

I Come With Joy

Red Hymnal 617

OPENING PRAYER: (all praying) Spirit of hope and renewal, as the dawn nudges us awake, summon us with your presence. Wrap us with the cloak of your wisdom and grace. As your light breaks the horizon of this day, help us see the love revealed in your creation. Nourish us with your wisdom and guide us with your hope, for we hunger to know you better. Amen

WORDS FOR YOUNG BELIEVERS:

Awesome God (Chorus)

Black Hymnal 2040

Our God is an awesome God; he reigns from heaven above with wisdom, pow'r and love. Our God is an awesome God!

Ellie Leuliette shares a blessing with our children!

LIFE SHARING: (follow directions offered by the pastor)

FIRST LESSON: Hosea 11:1-11 (CEB)

When Israel was a child, I loved him,
and out of Egypt I called my son.

² The more I called them,
the further they went from me;
they kept sacrificing to the Baals,
and they burned incense to idols.

³ Yet it was I who taught Ephraim to walk;
I took them up in my arms,
but they did not know that I healed them.

⁴ I led them
with bands of human kindness,
with cords of love.
I treated them like those who lift infants to their cheeks;

I bent down to them and fed them.

⁵ They will return to the land of Egypt,
and Assyria will be their king,
because they have refused to return to me.

⁶ The sword will strike wildly in their cities;
it will consume the bars of their gates
and will take everything because of their schemes.

⁷ My people are bent on turning away from me;
and though they cry out to the Most High,
he will not raise them up.

⁸ How can I give you up, Ephraim?
How can I hand you over, Israel?
How can I make you like Admah?
How can I treat you like Zeboiim?
My heart winces within me;
my compassion grows warm and tender.

⁹ I won't act on the heat of my anger;
I won't return to destroy Ephraim;
for I am God and not a human being,
the holy one in your midst;
I won't come in harsh judgment.

¹⁰ They will walk after the Lord,
who roars like a lion.
When he roars,
his children will come trembling from the west.

¹¹ They will come trembling like a bird,
and like a dove from the land of Assyria;
and I will return them to their homes, says the Lord.

HYMN OF PREPARATION:

To Know You More

Black Hymnal 2161

*GOSPEL LESSON: Luke 12:13-21 (CEB)

Someone from the crowd said to him, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me."

¹⁴ Jesus said to him, "Man, who appointed me as judge or referee between you and your brother?"

¹⁵ Then Jesus said to them, "Watch out! Guard yourself against all kinds of greed. After all, one's life isn't determined by one's possessions, even when someone is very wealthy." ¹⁶ Then he told them a parable: "A certain rich man's land produced a bountiful crop. ¹⁷ He said to himself, What will I do? I have no place to store my harvest! ¹⁸ Then he thought, Here's what I'll do. I'll tear down my barns and build bigger ones. That's where I'll store all my grain and goods. ¹⁹ I'll say to myself, You have stored up plenty of goods, enough for several years. Take it easy! Eat, drink, and enjoy yourself. ²⁰ But God said to him, 'Fool, tonight you will die. Now who will get the things you have prepared for yourself?' ²¹ This is the way it will be for those who hoard things for themselves and aren't rich toward God."

One: May this story inspire us all. ALL: To walk in the way that leads to life.

PASTORAL PRAYER

PRAYER OF CONFESSION: God of glory, you sent Jesus among us as the light of the world, to reveal your love for all people. We confess that our sin and pride hide the brightness of your light. We turn away from the poor; we ignore cries for justice; we do not strive for peace. Forgive us, God. In your mercy, cleanse us of our sin, and renew us once again with your Spirit, so that, as forgiven and renewed people, we may reflect the love and life of Jesus Christ into our world. Amen

INVITATION TO COMMUNION:

Pastor Linda Ray
Officiant Server – Dave Corby

Reader 2: Lift up your hearts and give thanks to God.

Reader 1: Blessed are you, O God, who with your Word and Holy Spirit created all things and called them good. In Jesus Christ your Word became flesh and dwelt among us. Through Jesus' suffering and death you took upon yourself our sin and death and destroyed their power forever. You raised from the dead this same Jesus, who now reigns with you in glory, and poured upon us your Holy Spirit, making us the people of your new covenant.

Reader 2: (Lifting the bread) On the night before meeting with death, Jesus sat with his friends at the table, sharing a meal. Jesus took the bread, lifted it to you, and blessed it. Jesus broke the bread and gave it to his friends, saying: "This bread is my life, a gift for you and for many. Eat this bread and remember me."

Reader 1: (Lifting the cup) When the supper was over, Jesus took the cup, blessed it, and shared it with his friends, saying, "Drink from this cup. This cup represents my love, a sign of the new covenant. It brings forgiveness from sin as it quenches your thirst. Drink from this cup and remember me."

And so, in remembrance of these your mighty acts in Jesus Christ, we offer ourselves in praise and thanksgiving as a holy and living sacrifice in union with Christ's offering for us.

Reader 2: Gracious God, pour out your Holy Spirit upon us and upon your gifts of bread and cup. By your Spirit unite us with the living Christ and with all who seek to follow in his life-giving way., that we may further your reign of peace and justice in every place. As we share this holy meal, we invite your life to fill us; we invite your Spirit to lead us more faithfully to be the body of Christ in the world until we feast at your table forever.

Reader 2: Let us join our hearts and voices in the prayer that God continues to teach us:

Our Father, which art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. Lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the Kingdom, the Power and the Glory Forever. AMEN.

PRAYERS AFTER RECEIVING:

(The congregation will come forward to partake of the bread and cup.)

St. Paul's Mission Statement

Reaching Up to praise God in vibrant worship

God calls us to live out our discipleship grounded in Christ's awakening us to the glory and majesty of God in all creation, and we respond together by worshiping God with our gratitude and praise. Standing or lifting our hands high are both ancient postures of worship, and so our dance of discipleship involves reaching up with our hearts, souls, and bodies, lost in wonder, love, and praise.

Enter his gates with thanksgiving, and his courts with praise. Give thanks to him, bless his name. For the Lord is good; his steadfast love endures forever, and his faithfulness to all generations.

Psalms 100:4-5 (NRSV)

Reaching In to deepen our spiritual walk with Christ

Christ accepts us as we are, and then calls us to follow him and learn from him, growing in our spiritual walk-through practices the church calls spiritual disciplines: prayer, fasting, meditation, studying God's Word, individually and with others. As we grow in the knowledge of God, we discover more about the extraordinary plans God has for our lives.

"If you continue in my word, you are truly my disciples; and you will know the truth, and the truth will make you free."

John 8:31-32 (NRSV)

Reaching Out with acts of love and compassion

Here's where it all comes together! Assured of God's eternal love, strengthened by the grace and knowledge of Christ, we are ready for the Holy Spirit to kindle a fire in our lives, gifting us for the labor of love God has prepared for us to accomplish. Having fallen in love with God, we love and serve our neighbors.

"Truly I tell you, just as you did it to one of the least of these who are members of my family, you did it to me."

Matthew 25:40 (NRSV)

Currently our pantry is bare and needs these items:

- pasta/pasta sauce
- canned items like Chef Boyardee, beef stew, Spam, chicken, tuna

- peanut butter and jelly
- any boxed items like mac'n cheese, stuffing, mashed potatoes
