February 8, 2026, 11:00 AM Service

WE ENTER GOD'S GATES WITH PRAISE

WELCOME WITH MUSIC AND IMAGES

Mark Holden & June Stemmler, Photographer & Curator, Gail Garner – ASL Interpreter

GATHERING MUSIC

GREETING (please stand in body or spirit)*

GATHERING WORDS:

Liturgist – Sue Menei

One: People of God, why are you here?

Many: We gather to worship with our hearts and our lives.

One: People of God, who do you worship?

Many: We worship God, who loves us and teaches us to love.

One: People of God, how do you worship?

Many: We worship God by allowing God's light to shine through us.

One: People of God, come, let us worship God, whose glory surrounds us!

Many: May our worship demonstrate God's glory in our neighborhood, community, and the whole earth.

*OPENING HYMN:

Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah

Red Hymnal 127

*OPENING PRAYER (all praying): God of compassion and justice, the worship you choose for us is to loose the bonds of injustice, to let the oppressed go free, to share bread with the hungry, to shelter the homeless. Then your light shall break forth like the dawn and your healing shall spring up quickly. So, in praise and wonder, we come to worship you not just with our words but with our hearts and our lives. Glory and honor be to you, O God, Creator of a new heaven and a new earth; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

WORDS FOR YOUNG BELIEVERS:

What A Mighty God We Serve

Green Hymnal 3016

What a mighty God we serve. What a mighty God we serve.

Angels bow before you, heaven and earth adore you. What a mighty God we serve.

Sue Menei shares a blessing with our children!

FIRST LESSON: Isaiah 58:1-9a (CEB)

Shout loudly; don't hold back;

raise your voice like a trumpet!

Announce to my people their crime,

to the house of Jacob their sins.

² They seek me day after day,

desiring knowledge of my ways

like a nation that acted righteously,

that didn't abandon their God.

They ask me for righteous judgments,

wanting to be close to God.

³ "Why do we fast and you don't see;

why afflict ourselves and you don't notice?"

Yet on your fast day you do whatever you want,

and oppress all your workers.

⁴ You quarrel and brawl, and then you fast;
you hit each other violently with your fists.
You shouldn't fast as you are doing today
if you want to make your voice heard on high.

⁵ Is this the kind of fast I choose,
a day of self-affliction,
of bending one's head like a reed
and of lying down in mourning clothing and ashes?
Is this what you call a fast,
a day acceptable to the Lord?

⁶ Isn't this the fast I choose:
releasing wicked restraints, untying the ropes of a yoke,
setting free the mistreated,
and breaking every yoke?

⁷ Isn't it sharing your bread with the hungry
and bringing the homeless poor into your house,
covering the naked when you see them,
and not hiding from your own family?

⁸ Then your light will break out like the dawn,
and you will be healed quickly.

Your own righteousness will walk before you,
and the Lord's glory will be your rear guard.

⁹ Then you will call, and the Lord will answer;
you will cry for help, and God will say, "I'm here."

HYMN OF PREPARATION:

Christ Beside Me

Black Hymnal 2166

*GOSPEL LESSON: Matthew 5:13-20 (CEB)

³ "You are the salt of the earth. But if salt loses its saltiness, how will it become salty again? It's good for nothing except to be thrown away and trampled under people's feet. ¹⁴ You are the light of the world. A city on top of a hill can't be hidden. ¹⁵ Neither do people light a lamp and put it under a basket. Instead, they put it on top of a lampstand, and it shines on all who are in the house. ¹⁶ In the same way, let your light shine before people, so they can see the good things you do and praise your Father who is in heaven.

¹⁷ "Don't even begin to think that I have come to do away with the Law and the Prophets. I haven't come to do away with them but to fulfill them. ¹⁸ I say to you very seriously that as long as heaven and earth exist, neither the smallest letter nor even the smallest stroke of a pen will be erased from the Law until everything there becomes a reality. ¹⁹ Therefore, whoever ignores one of the least of these commands and teaches others to do the same will be called the lowest in the kingdom of heaven. But whoever keeps these commands and teaches people to keep them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. ²⁰ I say to you that unless your righteousness is greater than the righteousness of the legal experts and the Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.

One: May this story inspire us all. ALL: To walk in the way that leads to life.

GATHERING OF JOYS AND CONCERNS

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (all praying): Merciful God, forgive us when we ignore you or your lessons for our lives. Forgive us for allowing discord to flourish. Forgive us for not feeding those who are hungry. Forgive us for not providing shelter to those who have no place to lay down at night. Forgive us for not repairing the broken places in our community. O Lord, forgive us and help us do your work of bringing about justice and healing. Shine your light through us, so that all may come to know your abundant love. Amen

INVITATION TO COMMUNION:

Pastor Linda Ray
Officiant Server- Sue Holden

Reader 1: The Lord be with you.

ALL: And also with you.

Reader 1: Lift up your hearts.

ALL: We lift them up to the Lord.

Reader 1: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

ALL: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Reader 1: It is a right and joyous thing to lift our hearts and hands to you, God of Light and Love, in thanksgiving for the gift of your grace. We know we are not alone because you have chosen to reveal your presence in our world. As we consider the lilies of the field, we are amazed by your intricate creativity. As we discover our interconnectedness with all living things we are filled with awe and wonder at the beauty of your dance of life. Before we knew the unsearchable riches of your child Jesus, we walked in shadows and cloud. But now as you reveal radiance to the world, we praise you, joining our voices with choirs of angels with prophets, apostles, and martyrs, and with all the faithful of every time and place and join their unending hymn:

ALL: Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Reader 2: You are holy and the full epiphany of your glory is Jesus Christ. In Jesus You were seen in the life of a child. In Jesus You were seen in the life of a youth you stayed behind in the temple and worried his earthly parents. In Jesus You offered to us countless treasures; radiant with life and grace.

Lifting the bread) On the night in which Jesus gave himself up for us, he took bread, gave thanks to you, broke the bread, gave it to his disciples, and said: "Take, eat, this is my body which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

Reader 1: (Lifting the cup) When the supper was over, Jesus took the cup, gave thanks to you, gave it to the disciples and said: "Drink from this, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant, poured out for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me."

And so, in remembrance of these your mighty acts in Jesus Christ, we offer ourselves in praise and thanksgiving as a holy and living sacrifice in union with Christ's offering for us, as we proclaim the mystery of faith:

ALL: Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again!

Reader 2: Presence of God, open our eyes that we might recognize your presence with us in the lives of everyone we meet, in all the places we visit, in all the words shared, in every action taken, may we see your epiphany and worship you, Jesus, may we adore you, most Holy Spirit, may we appreciate you, Creator God, Holy Trinity, now and forever.

ALL: AMEN. AMEN. AMEN.

Reader 2: Now in celebration of God's epiphany in Jesus Christ, may we join in prayer saying together:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. Lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the Kingdom, the Power and the Glory Forever. AMEN.

(The congregation will come forward to receive the bread and cup.)

St. Paul's Mission Statement

Reaching Up to praise God in vibrant worship

God calls us to live out our discipleship grounded in Christ's awakening us to the glory and majesty of God in all creation, and we respond together by worshiping God with our gratitude and praise. Standing or lifting our hands high are both ancient postures of worship, and so our dance of discipleship involves reaching up with our hearts, souls, and bodies, lost in wonder, love, and praise.

Enter his gates with thanksgiving, and his courts with praise. Give thanks to him, bless his name. For the Lord is good; his steadfast love endures forever, and his faithfulness to all generations.

Psalms 100:4-5 (NRSV)

Reaching In to deepen our spiritual walk with Christ

Christ accepts us as we are, and then calls us to follow him and learn from him, growing in our spiritual walk-through practices the church calls spiritual disciplines: prayer, fasting, meditation, studying God's Word, individually and with others. As we grow in the knowledge of God, we discover more about the extraordinary plans God has for our lives.

"If you continue in my word, you are truly my disciples; and you will know the truth, and the truth will make you free."

John 8:31-32 (NRSV)

Reaching Out with acts of love and compassion

Here's where it all comes together! Assured of God's eternal love, strengthened by the grace and knowledge of Christ, we are ready for the Holy Spirit to kindle a fire in our lives, gifting us for the labor of love God has prepared for us to accomplish. Having fallen in love with God, we love and serve our neighbors.

"Truly I tell you, just as you did it to one of the least of these who are members of my family, you did it to me."

Matthew 25:40 (NRSV)
